To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Chancellor Tanner to support his application for the Eta Omega Chapter Scholarship. In the time I've served as his counselor, he has consistently demonstrated the qualities necessary for success in the demanding world of high academia. Chancellor is a well-rounded young man who is very self-motivated and who demonstrates mastery in academics as well as athletics.

Academically, he is extremely intelligent, solidifying an impressive 3.8 GPA throughout his high school tenure. Tanner is an optimist who constantly seeks ways to gain insight on post-secondary options. He is a member of the National Honor Society, National Beta Club, Academic Decathlon, and the National Science Honor Society.

In addition, Tanner is a creative thinker who also can draw on his own experiences to develop thoughtful opinions on several issues. At school, Tanner has always challenged himself academically. He has superior interpersonal skills and works equally well independently or in a group setting. I'm truly amazed with all that Tanner has accomplished and I feel that he is one of our most determined, caring, and balanced students. He will walk onto a university campus and immediately have a positive effect on those around him. He is meticulous about details and stays focused on his goals. These characteristics describe Tanner's approach to academics.

He is a rare kind of student who has balanced the demands of academic and emotional well-being, all while having a smile on his face and extending a helping hand out towards his peers. I believe Tanner is a strong student who will be a viable asset to any institution. For these reasons, I submit this letter for a most deserving student.

Sincerely,

Carla Aldridge
