To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I am writing this letter in support of Dylan Holley's application for admission into your institution. I have known Dylan since 2019 and he immediately proved himself an academically astute and focused student. Dylan distinguished himself immediately as the student who was most filled with passion, enthusiasm, and excitement about the course material. Dylan is a critical thinker who is open-minded about new experiences and always asks unconventional questions in his various courses.

In addition to producing excellent academic work, Dylan has involved himself in numerous campus and volunteer organizations. His many talents and interests are astounding. Their common thread is his belief in cooperating with others and helping them to achieve their goals. Dylan believes that each one of us must contribute to a better world by our own actions. Dylan is an optimistic person who finds solutions in times of crisis. His fellow students look to him for advice, but he is also fun to be around. Dylan is a leader who is humble. He pursues the goals of his groups with passion without letting his own needs or interests get in the way.

Dylan is driven to understand how things work and is curious about the forces that hold our universe together. Dylan's personal strengths are as impressive as his intellectual accomplishments. He is an active, outgoing presence in class with a great sense of humor. He is the perfect person to get a group project rolling, but he also knows how to sit back and let others take the lead. His cheerful nature and openness to feedback means he is always learning and growing as a learner, an impressive strength that will continue to serve him well in college and beyond. Dylan is just the driven, engaging, and curious student that helps make a classroom a lively environment and safe place to take intellectual risks.

Dylan is an active and engaged student who participates in a variety of clubs and organizations. Dylan strives for excellence in every activity that he engages in within and without the school community. He personifies the following words in his actions: determination, international mindedness, and persistent intellectual curiosity. Always, in his work, Dylan is consistent, dedicated, and passionate, enthusiastic, cheerful, and a pleasure to work with. He has incredible creative energies and a refreshing idealism tempered only enough to accomplish what needs to be done. Dylan is one of the most resolute students who aspire to help others. At our school, we are expecting big things from Dylan in the way of educational and communal leadership in the years to come. Thank you once again for the opportunity to recommend such a special and impressive young man. Please call me at 404-802-5209 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Lola Azuana
