

OMEGA MAN OF THE YEAR
NOMINATION LETTER

It is my distinct and high honor to recommend Brother Paul David Simpson as a candidate for the coveted Omega Man of the Year Award of the Eta Omega Chapter of our beloved Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Brother Simpson is a native of Norfolk, VA where he attended public school. Upon graduating from Booker T. Washington High School, he entered Virginia State University and graduated with honors in Physics with a minor in Mathematics in 1963. While there, he was initiated in Nu Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and was also commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the US Army, Air Defense Artillery Branch. Professionally, he earned two master's degrees in Space Physics and Health/Medical Physics from Howard University and Georgia Institute of Technology, respectively. He then embarked on a 39+ year career as the Center for Disease Control Headquarters' first African American Radiation Safety Officer (RSO).

The above are accomplishments of Brother Simpson but there is so much to say about the spirit of Brother Simpson that abounds his professional pursuits. He is the most caring brother in our chapter who has a deep-seated passion for providing care to those most in need – our young African American boys and our Omega veterans. The Omega veterans are the foundation on which we stand today. Brother Simpson pontificates: “our veteran brothers are the ones that DESERVE the most care.” He is conscientious, steadfast and dependable and this fiscal year he has:
